

Dorothy Stuck, who was a close friend of WR, is a retired civic leader and business woman. Mrs. Stuck and her husband owned three eastern Arkansas newspapers for 20 years and she edited the Marked Tree Tribune. She served nine years as Director of the 5-state Southwestern Regional Office for Civil Rights of the Department of Health Education and Welfare and was given its highest award, the Distinguished Service Award.